

DIRTY SHIRLEY

When I was little I lived for Shirley Temples. I felt so grown up ordering them at restaurants, and I'd always.....always!.....save the cherry for last. This is the very grown up version and I highly recommend using the amarena cherries to level up this drink.

1 ounce grenadine

2 ounces vodka (or a 2 count pour.....count 1-2 when pouring.....count slow or fast depending on your preference)

8 ounces lemon lime soda (in the US, 7up or ginger ale)

Amarena cherries in syrup (look for them in your fancy cheese section, or at an upscale liquor store — also available online)

Fill a large collins glass or wine glass with ice. Add grenadine, vodka and top off with soda. Garnish with a cherry, or two.
